

Ioanna Seliniotaki

Ioanna was appointed as the Director of the Department of Private Insurance Supervision of the Bank of Greece on April 29, 2014. Previously she held the position of Alternate Director of the Banking Supervision Department, in which she served as a line supervisor of Greek SIFIs since 1987. She joined the Bank of Greece in 1980 and she worked as a junior accountant in the Accounting Department.

Ioanna is a member of the Board of Directors of the Hellenic Capital Market Commission.

She holds a bachelor's degree in economics (Economic University of Athens, 1979), and a Master's of Arts in regional economics and economic development (Panteion University of Athens, 2001). She speaks English.