

Annick Felten

Annick Felten is a member of the executive committee of the Commissariat aux Assurances, the Luxembourg Insurance supervisory body, where she heads the non-life insurance and reinsurance department. She is part, as a national expert, of the Luxembourg delegation at the European Council and the European Commission, negotiating Directives and Regulations in the insurance sector. She holds a master in economics and finance of the University of Nancy and a degree in actuarial sciences of the Université Libre de Bruxelles.