

CURRICULUM VITAE

Mojca Piškurić

Mojca Piškurić is Deputy Director and Head of Policy at the Slovenian Insurance Supervision Agency (AZN).

Before joining the AZN in 2015 she has worked as the Chief Risk Officer of Triglav Insurance from 2007. She has more than 13 years of experience in various risk management mandates, 9 years thereof in the insurance industry. In her current role she is responsible for the development of policy stances of the AZN, forming of legislative proposals, macroprudential supervision and analytics. She is a member of the Slovenian Financial Stability Board and a member of the Risk and Financial Stability Committee at EIOPA.

Mojca has a degree in applied mathematics from the University of Ljubljana and a doctorate in probability and game theory from the Technical University of Dresden. She is also a certified financial risk manager (FRM) and a frequent lecturer at numerous conferences and educational events in CEE.

Ljubljana, April 2016