

Dr. Manuela ZWEIMUELLER

Education

1995 PhD in Biochemistry

2006 Certificate in Economics for Scientists, University of Hagen, Germany

Professional Career

1996 – 2000 – Liability Loss Control Engineer at the International and Global Risks Department, Allianz SE

2001-2006 – Casualty Risk Consultant, Senior Accumulation Control & Early Warning Specialist, Munich RE

2006-2008 – Head of Department Risk Identification & Control in the Integrated Risk Management Division, Munich RE

2008-2010 – Managing Director of French Branch Office, Munich RE

2008 – 2010 - Representative of Munich RE in the Commission de la Réassurance de la FFSA and Member of the Comité Directeur de l'APREF, the French Reinsurance Organisation.

2010-2011 – Member of the Senior Management Team and Project Manager of SII Implementation, Munich RE/ERGO International

2011 – until August 2013 – Coordinator of External Relations Team, EIOPA

Since September 2013 – Head of Regulations, EIOPA

Other positions

2007 – Chairperson of the Emerging Risks Initiative of the CRO Forum and official representative from May to September of Munich RE in the CRO Forum