

AGENDA – Insuring wildfires - the need for more models and prevention measures

DATE: 9 October 2024 TIME: 10:00 – 13:00 CEST

Format - Digital – webex open from 09:45 CEST

Time	Topic
10:00 – 10:05	Welcome and introduction ➤ Marie Scholer, EIOPA, Senior Expert on Sustainable Finance
10:05-10:15	Key note▶ Patrick Hoedjes, EIOPA, Head of Department Policy and Supervisory Convergence
10:15-10:35	A view on wildfire risks in Europe and Q&A ➤ Duarte Oom, European Forest Fire Information System (EFFIS), Scientific project officer
10:35-10:55	 Supervising wilfdires risks in Australia and Q&A Ivan Chan, Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA), Principal analyst and firefighter
10:55-11:55	Pannel: The need for wildfires model in Europe and Q&A Technologies such as satellite data, AI and ML can help to model wildfires. Experts from the commercial, academic and regulatory sectors will discuss the current status of wildfire modelling in Europe, the challenges of modelling wildfires.
	 Dusko Radulovic, Climatig, CEO Samuel Lüthi, Institute for Atmospheric and Climate Science ETH Zurich, Researcher Francesco Lucarelli, Eoliann, Data scientist Elizabeth Brown, Federal Insurance Office (FIO), Senior Insurance Regulatory Policy Analyst Moderator: Marie Scholer, EIOPA, Senior Expert on Sustainable Finance
11:55-12:10	Break
12:10-12:30	The need for more prevention measures and Q&A Maria Inês de Oliveira Martins, University of Coimbra, Professor
12:30-12:50	Modelling adaptation measures − a US examples and Q&A > Jeff Czajkowski, National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC), Director
12:50-13:00	Concluding remarks ➤ Carlos Guines, EIOPA, Head of the Sustainable Finance Unit