OCTOBER 2018 –JUNE 2020

Member of the European Banking Authority’s Banking Stakeholder Group (EBA - BSG)

Lawyer specialised in Financial, Corporate, Banking and Consumer Law.

Throughout my long career as a lawyer I have participated in many relevant cases in financial consumer affairs and especially financial consumption at all levels, highlighting the work done in the National Court (Criminal Process) as accusation defending thousands of consumers.

I have also participated in other types of consumption fraud or conflicts, in which I have directed a large number of files (processes) on relevant consumption issues such as “preference shares” or different types of derivatives products.

As a lawyer of the consumer association, I have actively participated in the legal strategy of all cases concerning consumer abuses in which the association has participated, at the national level and have participated in the proposals for legislative change that the association has tried to make, participating in talks and conventions actively as a specialist in the field of Investment, Finance, consumers defence.
