

Larisa Dragomir

Larisa is a graduate of the Law School of the West University of Timisoara (Romania). She holds a Master degree in European Studies from the College of Europe Natolin (Poland) and a PhD on European prudential banking regulation and supervision from the European University Institute in Florence (Italy).

After initiating her career in 1998 as a commercial lawyer in Romania, Larisa has dedicated herself since 2003 exclusively to European affairs. She has worked at the European Central Bank, as well as in the Brussels interest representation sector (European Savings Banks Institute, and Intesa Sanpaolo Bank). She has joined the European Commission in November 2010, working on alternative investments funds and money market funds in the Asset Management unit and on the review of banking legislation and of the Single Supervisory Mechanism in the Banking unit. Larisa joined in 2019 the Romanian Presidency for the negotiations on the review of the European Supervisory Authorities. Since October 2020, she is the Deputy Head of the Insurance and Pensions unit.
