

EIOPA Insurance and Reinsurance Stakeholder Group

Marcin Kawiński

Education

1995–2000 M.A. in Finance and Banking (M.A. thesis: Determinants of Pension Fund Choice), Warsaw School of Economics, Poland, mark: excellent

2007 PhD in Economics (Effectiveness and Efficiency of Public and Private Insurance within Social Policy) Warsaw School of Economics, Poland (financed within a doctoral grant by the Ministry of Scientific Research)

2018 Habilitation in Finance (Personal Finance: Planning Insurance Coverage) Warsaw School of Economics, Poland

Duties

- Since 2007 Reader in the Department of Social Insurance at Warsaw School of Economics
- Since 2010 Vice-President of the Institute of Social Risk Management
- 2010-2013 Scientific Secretary of "Insurance News"
- Since 2015 Editor in Chief of "Social Insurances. Theory and Practice"
- Since 2019 Head of the Department of Social Insurance at Warsaw School of Economics
- Since 2019 Associate Professor at Warsaw School of Economics

Academic Honours

- 2010-2016 Member of Advisory Board of Centre on Household Assets and Savings Management (CHASM) at the University of Birmingham
- Since 2012 Member of Council of Advisors of Population Europe
- 2014-2017 Member of Editorial Board of "Insurance News"
- 2023- Member of Committee on the Climate Crisis of the Polish Academy of Sciences

International Projects

- 2015-2019 "Adequacy and Reality of Fully Comprehensive Car Insurance in Poland", Project Leader, National Science Centre, budget $65,000
- 2011-2013 "How the Generation Y Influences Experiences of Motor Vehicle Insurance Policy Holders in Poland, Germany and Romania", Project Co-Leader, Solera Inc., budget $45,000

Consulting and Expert Activities

- Expert Warsaw Institute of Banking (Creating and running the program for financial advisors certificated by €FPA – European Financial Planning Association, within life insurance and pension plans)
- Arbiter at the Arbitrage Court at the Polish Financial Supervision Authority