

EIOPA Occupational Pensions Stakeholder Group

Ute Meyenberg

As National Secretary of CFDT Cadres where I am in charge of social protection and issues related to sustainability and just transition. CFDT is France's first trade union in the private sector. On the European level, I am working with the Association of European Paritarian Institutions (AEIP) a Brussels-based advocacy organization, representing Social Protection Institutions and for the EFRAG working group for sectorial standards of the banking sector. In France, I am member of the Enforcement Committee (Commission des sanctions) of the financial markets supervisor (Autorité des marchés financiers, AMF) and the sustainability commission of the French standardsetter for accounting norms, ANC (Autorité des normes comptables).

Between 2011 and 2016 I participated in the Banking Stakeholder Group of the EBA and at the same time I was compliance officer at Credit Agricole CIB, the investment bank of Crédit Agricole group. The work also implied writing internal directives and guidelines.

I have worked for over 25 years in the banking sector mainly in France in various departments such as loan syndications, project finance and financial analysis. For 5 years I have worked in Germany in the banking sector as client relationship officer and in project Finance for Dresdner Bank.

I hold a degree in management studies from the French business school HEC (Hautes études commerciales, 1988) and I have a title of psychologist of work (2010).
