

EIOPA Insurance and Reinsurance Stakeholder Group

Hanna Wallinder

I am policy adviser at the Swedish Insurance trade union Forena.

Forena is representing 13500 members within the insurance industry in Sweden. I applied with the support from UNI Europe Finance. My expertise as a trade union policy adviser and responsible for EU-affairs could be seen as vital in advocating for innovative and fair insurance policies and a competitive industry in the EU capital market union.

I hold a Bachelor's degree in Social Science and another in Economics, and have an extensive political background. I have worked in various roles for the Swedish government, public authorities, and trade unions, including positions in Brussels.

I bring a wealth of experience and expertise to the table, particularly in the field of insurance and sustainability policy. I have a great commitment to advancing the interests of European finance workers.

I have deep understanding of regulatory frameworks, market dynamics, and workers' perspectives will make me an asset to the advisory group. I have great communication and interpersonal skills, allowing me to effectively engage with a diverse range of stakeholders and foster constructive dialogue.

I am known for a great ability to listen attentively, analyse complex issues, and offer innovative solutions that promote transparency, fairness, and efficiency within the expert groups I am a member of.

At the heart of my mission lies a commitment to ensure that insurance practices remain transparent, ethical, and accessible to all. My commitment to transparency and integrity aligns seamlessly with safeguarding employee and consumers rights. I believe my dedication to upholding high ethical standards and promoting responsible investment practices make me an ideal member to contribute meaningfully to the work of the Stakeholder Group.
