

Marc Horovitz

Marc Horovitz holds a Master's degree in Science and Executive Engineering from Mines Paris – PSL, a Master's degree in Business Administration from HEC Paris, and a Master's degree in Public Administration from Université Paris I – Panthéon Sorbonne.

He currently serves as a Policy Officer in the Insurance and Pensions Unit of the Directorate-General for Financial Stability, Financial Services, and Capital Markets Union (DG FISMA).

Marc joined the European Commission in 2018, initially as a Seconded National Expert, and became an EU Official in 2023.

Before joining the Commission, Marc worked at the French Prudential and Resolution Authority (Autorité de contrôle prudentiel et de résolution – ACPR) from 2014. He began as a Policy Expert in the International Affairs Directorate and later led the team responsible for supervising the French subgroup of a European Internationally Active Insurance Group.

At DG FISMA, Marc currently represents the European Commission on EIOPA's Policy Steering Committee. He has also participated in various EIOPA project groups and in several working structures of the International Association of Insurance Supervisors (IAIS).
